

I've been here in Utah for 7 years and K-Love has been there for me when I needed encouragement and help to talk about my problems, especially to thick and thin, and that's the only radio station I listen to, I think it's about time that people should realize that there is GOD and that GOD loves all of us...I support you all the way. May GOD Bless Us All!!